Athletes who will compete in the 2020 Junior National Championships and already participated in the 2020 Senior National Championships will be allowed to resubmit the same Medical Form used for the Senior Nationals only if the athlete has not sustained any further injury and his/her medical condition has not changed since he/she provided the first form.

Athletes will also need to attach the following document with their form from Senior Nationals.

DECLARATION

I declare the information on the form attached to still be accurate regarding my medical condition.

I have not sustained any injury or started taking new medication between the time the form was signed and now.
