It's not possible to fight only in the open weight; fighters must be registered in at least one division. All divisions with less than 4 fighters will automatically be moved to the upper one.

Fighters can fight in both point and light tag teams but only in one team for each style.

In black belt divisions in tatami sports and in the advanced divisions in ring sports, ONLY APPROVED WAKO BRANDS will be allowed. Athletes who have taken part in European and World Championships can only be entered in the black belts/advanced divisions.

Masters can fight in the senior categories with an exemption granted by their Federation
