HOW CAN I JOIN AS A REFEREE?

You are an official referee and reputable expert in your martial art sport? Great, so join our eTournaments! We expect you to judge fair! Simply browse for available events and register on www.sportdata.org as an E-REFEREE. We will inform you about every step you have to do and support you throughout the whole event. After the draw, we will randomly assign matches for you. Once all videos are submitted, you can find them online and start judging. Follow your matches online and the final results.

If entry fees are charged for eTournaments we will pay our Referees.

Tournament System

- If not defined different for a particular event, the Tournament will be carried out in single elimination (KO system) mode

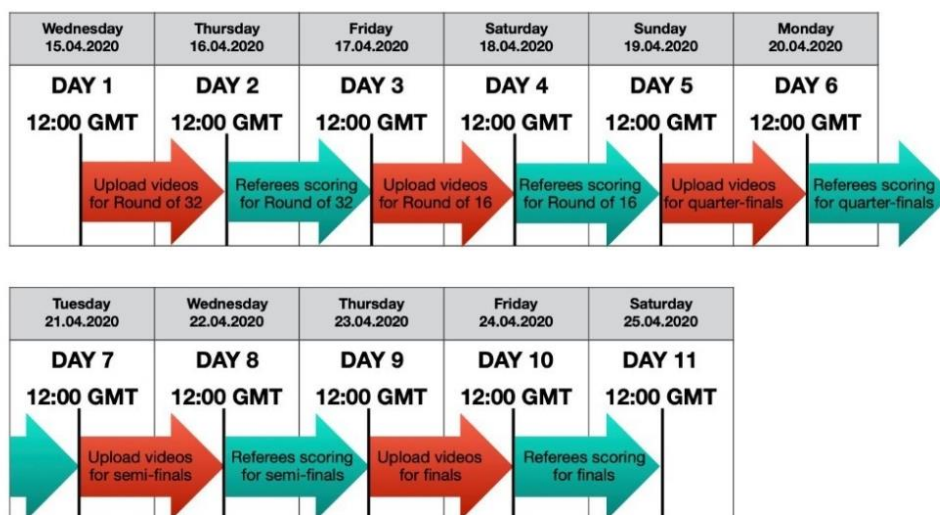

- The winner of each match will proceed to the next round

Tournament Schedule

- One day before the start of the Tournament, the draws will be published and all participants informed

- A detailed timetable will be published before the start of the tournament on the event page

- Each competitor has to record, upload the video on a supported video platform and submit the video URL within 24 hours for each round. This gives every competitor the same chance and respects different time zones

- After your video ULR submission, your video will be validated in order to make sure it meets all requirements

- Once the videos are validated and approved, the referees will also get 24 hours in order to judge their matches

- This process continues until all the finals are finished on the last day of the Tournament

- For each round you have to record, upload and submit a new video, following above explained video requirements

- Sample Tournament schedule based on 32 competitors in a category:

The Referee Panel

- For international events the panel of 5 referees will be generated randomly, and excludes referees from the same country the athletes are from

- For national events the panel of 3 or 5 referees will be generated randomly, and excludes referees from the same club the athletes are from

Scoring and Judging

- For each match the referee compare the forms of both competitors and appoints Red or Blue as the winner

- The number of all referee votes are counted. E.g. The final score will be 3-2, 4-1 or 5-0 for the winner of that match
