

50th EKF SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

19-22 March 2015, Istanbul (Turkey)

PRESS REGISTRATION

ONLINE REGISTRATION

The media accreditation process for the 50th EKF Senior Championship will be launched on 23rd February 2015 and will close on 9th March 2015. All media representatives wishing to attend the event must apply directly to EKF by using the online accreditation system. Please note that submitting an online form is an application only and thereby does not guarantee the granting of accreditation.

Only professional journalists (Press Card required + a proof of the effectiveness of a mission to an official media) should be accredited. Please gather copies of your press card and a photo before proceeding to online registration at

<http://set.sportdata.org/index.php/ekfseniors2015pressregistration?tmpl=component>

Exceptions may be granted only on request to:

- Journalists working for a national federation, upon request by email to communication@wkf.com.es to the attention of the President of the EKF (name and description of the media and target audience)
- Bloggers on request by email to communication@wkf.com.es to the attention of the President of the EKF (name and description of the media and target audience)

For these exceptions, the application must be made and accepted before the event. Applicants will be informed of the success of their accreditation requests by email.

Should you have any problems in completing this form or have any questions, please send us an email at communication@wkf.com.es

HOW TO GET AN ACCREDITATION BADGE?

In order to get an accreditation badge, accredited journalists need to attend the Accreditation Session in person. Each media representative is required to present an identity document.

REGISTRATION SESSIONS

Before the championships: At the registration room for delegations

Wednesday, March 18th: 10.00h – 15.00h

During the championships: In the Press center at the stadium

19th & 20th, March: 08.30h - 15.00h
